

Dear Nordic working time researchers

We have the pleasure of inviting you to the WINC2025 (Working Hours in the Nordic Countries) symposium in Copenhagen. Please, forward this call to working hour-researchers affiliated with Nordic research institutions.

The symposium will be held at the National Research Centre for the Working Environment, from lunch on the 12th to lunch on the 13th of May 2025 (only physical attendance will be possible).

Call for abstracts to the WINC2025 symposium

We welcome abstracts and in particular studies presenting unpublished results. Abstracts that have been submitted to other conferences are also welcome. The abstracts will not be published or made electronically available.

The deadline for submission of abstracts is March 7, 2025.

Abstract requirements

Word count max. 300 words. Abstracts should be sent as a Word document to winc2025@nfa.dk.

The following headlines should be included:

- Title
- Author(s) and affiliation(s), underscore name of presenting author
- Introduction
- Methods
- Results
- Conclusion

The symposium will feature oral and poster presentations based on the submitted abstracts. Authors are encouraged to indicate their preference for an oral or poster presentation in the accompanying email when submitting their abstract. Additionally, it should be confirmed that the presenting author will be physically present at the symposium.

All submitted abstracts undergo peer-review, and the reviewing committee will notify the authors whether the abstract is accepted as an oral or as a poster presentation. Authors will be notified about this decision March 31, 2025.

Early career researcher workshop

A pre-conference workshop for early career researchers will be held on the May 12, 2025 from 9.00 to 11.30. Early career researchers are students, research assistants, Ph.D. candidates, and postdocs and participants with a similar academic or professional level. Please, indicate when you register, whether you attend this workshop.

Conference dinner

The conference dinner will be at the participants' own expense. We hope that everybody will join! When registering for the conference, you will have the possibility of signing up for the conference dinner.

Hotels

Participants make their own hotel reservations. There are plenty of hotels in the center of Copenhagen, for example:

Kong Arthur or Ibsens Hotel: <https://arthurhotels.dk/>

Zleep Hotel: <https://hrewards.com/en/zleep-hotel-copenhagen-city>

ProfilHotels (Plaza or Richmond):

The deadline for registration is April 11, 2025.

The symposium program (including lunch on both days) is free of charge, but the participants need to cover their travel and living expenses including the conference dinner.

What is WINC?

The main aims of the WINC symposium are to share new research results and to support networking of the Working time researchers in the Nordic countries. For more information about the WINC network, please see <http://nfa.dk/winc>.

If you would like more information on the WINC symposium, please contact us at winc2025@nfa.dk.

Best wishes on behalf of the WINC steering group,

Kirsten Nabe-Nielsen, Ann Dyreborg Larsen and Anne Helene Garde (local organizers)
